

Project Overview

Biodiversity & Well-being Toolkit

01

Development of a framework toolkit which enables biodiversity and well-being to be integrated into physical development. Includes: extensive consultations, trialling the toolkit to measure benefits, publication of toolkit

Expanding MNT's youth programme and education materials. Support for Monty's Messengers, Junior Programme and Senior Programme; Organisation of an annual Higher Education Evening

02

MNT Youth & Education Programme

Herbarium development, data systems and management, citizen science opportunities created and nurtured, natural history collections developed, publications and interpretation developed on biodiversity and well-being.

Biological Collections & Information

03

Expansion of botanic garden to facilitate uptake of toolkit and provide source of information, demonstrations and provision of native plants

04

MNT Botanic Garden Development

Consultations, public events and campaigns, continuous dialogue with community through outreach including social media channels.

Communications & Reporting

05

Project Webpage
(scan QR)

Contact information for DPLUS192 project:
info@montserratnationaltrust.ms
or hello@ukotcf.org

UK Centre for Ecology & Hydrology

Meise Botanic Garden

