

Antillean Crested Hummingbird

Scientific name: Orthorhyncus cristatus

These special birds are named after the shiny green crest that males have. They're the smallest hummingbirds on Montserrat. They feed on nectar, and pollinate plants over the island.

