

Pearly-eyed Thrasher

Scientific name: Margarops fuscatus

These birds are also known as 'Thrushes' in Montserrat. They eat fruit and insects, and sometimes bigger animals like lizards and frogs. They live in the forest, but are quite bold with people, and can be seen in gardens or near houses.

