

Yellowline Arrow Crab

Scientific name: Stenorhyncus seticornis

Yellowline Arrow Crabs are a kind of crustacean, and live in the sea. They're nocturnal, which means they're active at night. They can attach objects to their bodies to help them keep camouflaged.

