

Invertebrates and vertebrates

Montserrat Oriole

Animals with backbones are called vertebrates.

Those without backbones are called invertebrates.

These animals all live in Montserrat. Cut them out, and glue them onto the right group: invertebrates or vertebrates.

Keyhole Limpet

Jamaican Fruit-eating Bat

Goby

Julia Heliconian butterfly

Antillean Crested Hummingbird

Brown Pelican

Montserrat Whistling Frog

Stick insect

Dragonfly

Cattle Egret

Hermit Crab

Agouti

Invertebrates: no backbones

Vertebrates: have backbones